"Steep, technical, fast and fun. An excellent trail built specifically for mountain biking." — DJ Nechrowy

Description

This trail is a directional downhill trail. Ride up HyMasa Trail or the Amasa Back road to access the top end start.

This is an outstanding new singletrack along the rim below the iconic Amasa Back 4x4 trail. It’s a very well built, thoughtful and challenging trail.

The top end starts with an easy climb that continues from HyMasa Trail. The views of Jackson Hole and Canyonslands are outstanding.

A big rock drop will mark the start of the descent. The upper half of the trail is designed for longer travel bikes and riders who enjoy technical descending. There are plenty of options to avoid most of the larger drops, so you can make it as hard as you want. After the first series of descents and rollouts, Captain Abah contours a bit with some short punchy climbs and drops.

The lower half of the route drops into tight singletrack nestled above Kane Creek. This part of the route is fast and exciting with
